Youth Sports: Promoting Long-Term Athletic Development

Thursday, Apr 11, 2019

07:30 AM - 09:30 AM

Location: Tampa Convention Center: Convention Room 3 & 4

Description:

Childhood is fleeting and so is the youth sports experience. Research on sports specialization and long term athletic development will be the basis for practical strategies for improving the youth sports culture in American communities. Coaches and administrators will learn how to establish more comprehensive, athlete-centered programs, that are well aligned with SHAPE America's National Standards for Sport Coaches. Attendees will also learn ways to promote player development and lifetime involvement in sports.

Intended Audience:

Elementary; Middle/High

Speaker(s):

Lynn Pantuosco-Hensch
